Fellow Lochbuie Citizens –

Greetings and Happy New Year! This upcoming year will bring more houses to Lochbuie, increased potential for commercial development, road repairs throughout the town, and a new town hall with community event space and basic library services. In short, 2016 will be a time of great change for our growing town.

As you've probably noticed on the news, 2016 is also an election year. Elections impact the important decisions that occur not only in Washington, D.C., but also locally. I encourage you to get involved and become informed about the issues occurring in our town. Your voice and vote matter.

Relatedly, in this newsletter, you will find information about an upcoming discussion being held by the Weld RE-3J school district about necessary improvements to school infrastructure and educational programming throughout our local school district. I strongly encourage everyone to attend this meeting to express your thoughts and opinions.

Also, in this newsletter, you will find basic information about the town's snow removal policies. The town board and town staff were overwhelmed with communications during the most recent snow storms and wanted to take this opportunity to update citizens about the town's standard plowing plans. With experts predicting a harsh winter for Colorado, our public works staff are ready to ensure our streets are passable and as safe as practicable. The policies that the staff follow during snow storms are attached for your review.

Finally, as always, I and the other members of the town board encourage all Lochbuie citizens to reach out with questions or concerns.

Thank you and enjoy 2016!

SEWER RATES ESTABLISHED JANUARY THROUGH MARCH, 2016

The Town shall determine for each user the average monthly volume of wastewater discharged to the sewer system. This average monthly volume shall be determined by the average metered water usage during the “winter base period” of January through March of each year.

The customer’s rate is determined by the customer’s average monthly water usage during the winter base period and multiplying by the per-one-thousand-gallon charge in the rate schedule.
